

A Case For Shame (with Cold Specks)

Moby

You today
You today
You today
You todayCut off your nose
To spite your face
Slowly send your palms awayDraw fire crawl out
And seek the shade
Slowly send your palms awayA fine line will set you apart
Swallow my name, swallow it down
Sing me a songShoot the breeze, shake my hand
Across the fire, I caught your stare
Sing me a song
You todayA beacon will send you home
A beacon will send you homeA fine line will set you apart
Swallow my name, swallow it down
Sing me a song.Shoot the breeze, shake my hand
Across the fire, I caught your stare
Sing me a songA fine line will set you apart
Swallow my name, swallow it down
Sing me a song.Shoot the breeze, shake my hand
Across the fire, I caught your stare
Sing me a songCut off your nose
To spite your face
Slowly send your palms away
I heard you say
I will not shame
You todayYou today
You today
You today
You today
