

Skipping Stones (feat. Jhené Aiko)

Gallant

Find me
What am I missing?
What am I missing?
Find me skipping stones, yeah, washed up rocks
Holding out for something I can't force, eh
What am I missin'?
Oh, baby,
What am I missin'? Where's the peace of mind
I was told, I was told, I was told
At the beginning
Feeling compromised
Like I was born in a league of my own
But I'm sinking
So find me skipping stones, yeah, washed up rocks
Holding out for something I can't force
What am I missin'?
Oh, baby,
Oh, baby,
What am I missin'? I've gone for miles and miles in search of right direction
I long to figure out, but I keep on forgetting
All of the lessons that I've learned
How many bridges have I burned?
When did I go missing, somewhere in the distance? Find me skipping stones, yeah, washed up rocks
Holding out for something I can't force
What am I missin'?
Oh, what am I missin'?
Woah, girl
Feeling
Somber
Say it to me, say it now!
