

crash&burn (feat. O'neill Hudson)

Bea Miller

I know that it's been written before
But up until now couldn't find the words 'cause
Ain't nobody gotten through to me
Nobody else but you to me
Nobody else can turn me out inside myself And I can't take it when you look me in my eyes Ain't nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten, nobody-body got through, but you
Ain't nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten, nobody-body got through, but you
I wanna be yours
And you wanna be mine
And everyone else been wasting my time I know that it's been written before
But I wanna let you know that I adore you You're the only one who makes me feel so high
But I won't crash and burn this time And I can't take it when you look me in my eyes Ain't
nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten, nobody-body got through, but you
Ain't nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten, nobody-body got through, but you I wanna be yours
And you wanna be mine
And everyone else been wasting my time
Ain't nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten, nobody-body got through, but you
Ain't nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten through to me
Nobody gotten, nobody-body got through, but you
