

Miss the Misery

Foo Fighters

Oh, Oh
If I had my way
If I had to lose
Wouldn't take back one thing
Never had much to choose Then it dawned on me
Coming down on you
Like a cold sky raining under a burning moon Waiting all your life, your wish is coming true
Bless your heart for beating, me right out of you Miss the misery
Need a reason for a change
Need a reason to explain
So turn it on again
Don't change your mind
You're wasting light
Get in and let's go, go What a nice long leash
What a nice tight noose
Never work for me, but
Sure it'll look good on you Waiting all your life, your wish is coming true
Bless your heart for beating, me right out of you Miss the misery
Need a reason for a change
Need a reason to refrain
So turn it on again Don't change your mind
You're wasting light
Get in and let's go, go
Miss the misery
Gimme reason for a change
Miss the misery
Gimme reason to refrain Missed your misery today
Missed your misery today
Come on and turn it on for me! Don't change your mind
You're wasting light
Don't make this right
Don't make this right
Get in and let's go
Go, oh, oh, oh
