Love Her

Jonas Brothers

Drive me crazy, make me mental No other buttons she can push

One second she's Miss SentimentalThen she's afraid she's said too muchOpposites attract and we're the livin' proof of this

But I keep on comin' back like a magnet'Cause when you love her

No matter the fight you know she's always right

And it's alright

And they say love can hurt

But seein' her smile can get you every time

Yeah, every time

Because you love her, la-la-lala-lala

Love her, yeah

I put my selfish ways in boxes

And shipped 'em back to where they came

Will never let it get close to bein' toxic

And I promise I'll never walk awayOpposites attract and we're the livin' proof of this But I keep on comin' back like a magnet'Cause when you love her

No the common back like a magnet cause when you love

No matter the fight you know she's always right

And it's alright

And they say love can hurt

But seein' her smile can get you every time

Yeah, every time

Because you love her, la-la-lala-lala

Love her, yeahGotta learn to let the small things go

And know it's always far from perfect

And I know that we can get emotional

But the hardest parts are always worth it

'Cause when you love her

No matter the fight you know she's always right

And that's alright

And they say love can hurt

But seein' her smile will get you every time

Yeah, every time

Because you love her, la-la-lala-lala

Love her, yeahBecause you love her, la-la-lala-lala

Love her, yeah

Because you

Because you love her
