Drown the City

A Skylit Drive

Lie to me
I wont lie
tape your mouth shut
lie to me
I wont lie

swallow your tongueforget it all I have you buried in my walls ill use your skin to cover up my scaresthe place you lay in a bloody hall of fame the ropes that tied your hands right by your side the ropes that fied your hands right by your side the place you lay in a bloody hall of fame the ropes that fied your hands right by your side so now your screaming at the top of your lungs > hoping for someone to come hoping they'll bring a gun to inflict all the pain

I caused upon you.I wont die I will lie the only problem with the story carved on your chest is its hard to read when your missing your ribsthe place you lay in a bloody hall of fame the ropes that tied your hands right by your side the place you lay in a bloody hall of fame the ropes that tied your hands right by your sideso now your screaming at the top of your lungs hoping for someone to come hoping they'll bring a gun to inflict all the pain I caused upon you. I wont die I will lie the only problem with the story carved on your chest is its hard to read when your missing your ribsso now your screaming at the top of your lungs hoping for someone to come hoping they'll bring a gun to inflict all the pain

I caused upon you.so now your screaming at the top of your lungs waiting for someone to come hoping they'll bring a gun to inflict all the pain

I caused upon youimmerse me cut my throat if you want me skin deep you better act now Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/