

One Falls, Two Rise

Annihilator

Alone in the darkness alone in the shade
The feelings of guilt they haunt me
Can't live with the pain
Repeating the same old story over and over again
I'm trying to find the answers will this ever end
Alone in the darkness alone in the shade
The feelings of guilt they haunt me
Can't live with the pain
Repeating the same old story over and over again
I'm trying to find the answers will this ever end
In from the mist to do what's right
No one is going to know
Everyday is like a fight getting through is so tough
It's like a struggle to survive
I win the battle stop the war
What I need to stay alive tell me what it's all for
One Falls Two Rise I Shall Survive
One Falls Two Rise I Shall Survive
Next night or fight maybe nothing I can do
I'm so cold and numb I'm so down and blue
Just like a rat I'm turning white pressure pushing me
Is it luck is it fate why have you chosen me
One Falls Two Rise I Shall Survive
One Falls Two Rise I Shall Survive
Crawl, flat pain in my heart
Spinning around and around
Picking me up falling apart
Kicking me when I am down
Can not go on everythings wrong
The end of the road
Full of confusion full resolution
I am about to explode
Crawl, flat pain in my heart
Spinning around and around
Picking me up falling apart
Kicking me when I am down
Can not go on everythings wrong
The end of the road
Full of confusion full resolution
I am about to explode
We all break up make mistakes try not to carry the weight
Try to learn from the past it's never to late
If you try to do your best it all works out in the end
One Falls Two Rise I Shall Survive
One Falls Two Rise I Shall Survive
