

Never Mind

112

Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I'll be there Should've known it when I saw you, baby
Should've never let him call you, baby
No matter how I try, no longer can I hide
The way I feel that's why I'm asking you Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I'll be there Girl, I have places I want you to be
And so many things I want you to see
If you'd only put your trust in me
Baby, I'll show you love
Oh baby, I wanna put a smile upon your face
Oh lady say, yes and I'll be where you are [Incomprehensible] Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I'll be there Oh baby, I wanna put a smile upon your face
Oh lady say, yes and I'll be where you are [Incomprehensible] Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I'll be there Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I
Oh baby, I wanna put a smile upon your face
Oh lady say, yes and I'll be where you are [Incomprehensible] Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I'll be there Never mind that he don't love you
Never mind that he don't care
I'll give you love the way you want it
Say, it's alright and I'll be there
