

Need to Belong to Someone

Isaac Hayes

Someone, someone
Someone, someone
Someone, someone
Someone, someone I need to belong to someone
It hurts to be known as no one
Will ever some sweet girl bring love into my world?
'Cause I need to belong to someone I wanna be kissed and held tight
I want to be missed on a cold and lonely night
Somebody hear my plea, call out to me
'Cause I need to belong to someone Sometimes I feel like a motherless child
No one cares for me, I've never known sympathy
I hide my needs from the world with a smile
Understand that I'm only a man
And a man needs to belong to someone
Man hates to be known as no one
Will ever some sweet girl bring a little love into my world?
'Cause I need to belong to someone Oh, I hide my needs, from the world with a smile
But understand, I'm only a man And a man needs to belong to someone
A man hates to be known as no one
Oh, send me a sweet girl to bring love into my world
'Cause I need to belong to someone I need to be kissed, yeah
(I need to belong to someone, someone)
I need to be missed, oh yeah
(I need to be loved by someone, someone)
I need to be held tight on a cold, cold and lonely night
(I need to belong to someone, someone)
I need to hold, hold someone, someone
(I need to be loved by someone, someone)
I need to belong to someone
(I need to belong to someone, someone) I need to be missed, oh yeah, someone
(I need to be loved by someone, someone)
(I need to belong to someone, someone)
(I need to be loved by someone, someone) I need to belong, some sweet girl
(I need to belong to someone, someone)
Bring love into my world
(I need to be loved by someone, someone) (I need to belong to someone, someone)
