

Colorblind (feat. Tove Lo)

Karma Fields

[Verse 1]

The flowers are all dead
In my garden nothing grows
No life left in the soil
No sunshine
Standing by your grave
Ooh, the colors are all gone
The memory of you
Opens up the wound[Pre-Chorus]
Again, again, I see your face

[Chorus]

These tears are mine so you left me
Water in my lungs until I can't breathe
These tears are mine, they're tryna trap me
Ooh, ooh

These tears are mine so you left me
Water in my lungs until I can't breathe
These tears are mine, they're tryna trap me
Ooh, ooh[Post-Chorus]

Again, again, I see your face[Verse 2]

Collecting our mistakes
What once was you and I
I was pushing you away
You left my world to die
Standing by your grave
Ooh, the colors are all gone
My memory of you
Opens up the wound
[Pre-Chorus]

Again, again, I see your face
Again, again, I see your face[Chorus]
These tears are mine so you left me
Water in my lungs until I can't breathe
These tears are mine, they're tryna trap me
Ooh, ooh

These tears are mine so you left me
Water in my lungs until I can't breathe
These tears are mine, they're tryna trap me
Ooh, ooh[Outro]

Again, again, I see your face
Again, again, I see your face

Again, again, I see your face
