

Midnight (Giorgio Moroder Remix)

Coldplay

In the darkness
Before the dawn
In the swelling
Of this storm
Running round and with apologies
And hope is gone
Leave a light, a light on Millions are
Lost from home
In the swelling
Swelling on
Running round and with a thunder
To bleed from thorns
Leave a light, a light on
Leave a light, a light on
Leave a light, a light on
Leave a light, a light on
In the darkness
Before the dawn
In the darkness
Before the dawn Leave a light, a light on
Leave a light, a light on
