

Fire

Jay Sean

Uh oh she's fire fire oh
You know she's fire fire oh
Uh oh she's fire fire oh
You know she's fire fire oh Can nobody do it like she do
Anything just to please you
And she doesn't mean to
It comes naturally
I cant lie she sees through me
The way that she moves me Her beauty's not everything
Everything
She don't know what she does
That's why I'm into her
I just melt with her touch (when I get close to her)
I just cant get enough (when I'm alone with her)
And I can feel myself burning
Cause that girl is fire, fire, fire
That's why I desire, sire, her
Cause that girl is fire, fire, fire
That's why I desire, sire, her Uh oh she's fire fire oh
You know she's fire fire oh
Uh oh she's fire fire oh
You know she's fire fire oh Sometimes I catch myself staring
As your doing your hair in the mirror
(and I just cant leave you alone)
So I'll will get up and just grab you
I'm so glad that I have you
I found you
Lets do it right here and right now
She don't know what she does
That's why I'm into her
I just melt with her touch (when I get close to her)
I just cant get enough (when I'm alone with her)
And I can feel myself burning
Cause that girl is fire, fire, fire That's why I desire, sire, her
That girl is fire, fire, fire
That's why I desire, sire, her
I cant stop I know it's a cliché
I don't do this everyday
But let me hear you sing
Just don't stop Cause you're the one that I freak with
You know my secrets
Baby I'm burning

Cause that girl is fire, fire, fire
That's why I desire, sire, her
Cause that girl is fire, fire, fire
That's why I desire, sire, her
Uh oh she's fire fire oh
You know she's fire fire oh
Uh oh she's fire fire oh
You know she's fire fire oh
