

Different Devil

Chickenfoot

There's a wise old tale
About the same old Hell
Only the devil is changed
With two brand new lovers
Rolling in the covers
Everybody wants some strangeWe all know somebody's gonna tell you just want to do
But it don't mean nothin' 'less
it's got something for me and youRun away
If you think there's someone better
Run away
Into the arms of something new
Yiu can stay
If you think he'll treat you better than I do
Turn around babe
I'll be right here waiting for you
Hey we're both getting older
Should've known better
Somethings stay the same
You want your freedom
I'm so jealous
No one's gonna changeWe all know somebody's gonna tell what's right to do
Hey I'm sitting here missing, baby, I'm missing you
Run away
If you think there's someone better
Run away
Into the arms of something new
You can stay
If you think he'll treat you better than I do
Turn around babe
I'll be right here waiting for you
There's a sweet dark angel
On my shoulder
Singing in my ear
From the bad side of Heaven
With all her glory
Salvation's here.We all know somebody's gonna tell you just want to do
But it don't mean nothin' 'less
it's got something for me and youRun away
If you think there's someone better
Run away
Into the arms of something new
You can stay

If you think he'll treat you better than I do
Turn around babe
I'll be right here waiting for youRun away
If you think there's someone better
Run away
You can stay
Turn around babe
