Yeah Boy

Kelsea Ballerini

Captured my attention
Make my heart stop and listen
When you look my way
Blue jeans and a ball cap
Thinking that you're all that

And I'm thinking the sameYou got that something in your eyes

I think about it all the time

If you ever wonder

If I wanna make you mineYeah boy

I'm digging what you're doing

Yeah boy

I'm trying to keep it cool

But you're making it hard

I'm wishing your arms

Were wrapping me up tight

Yeah boy

You shine and you can't even help it

Yeah boy

Your eyes could make the moon jealous

And if you wanna know

If I wanna be your girl tonight

Yeah boyEvery song that's playing

Gets me thinking about you baby

And the way you roll

So, let's

Put down the drop top

Burn a little black top

Off that roadBaby what we're waiting on

The stars are out the night is young

If you wanna know

If I wanna go and get gone

Yeah boy

I'm digging what you're doing

Yeah boy

I'm trying to keep it cool

But you're making it hard

I'm wishing your arms

Were wrapping me up tightYeah boy

You shine and you can't even help it

Yeah boy

Your eyes could make the moon jealous

And if you wanna know

If I wanna be your girl tonight Yeah boyYeah boy

I wanna take a little ride with you

Yeah boy

I wanna spend a little time with you

Yeah boy

I wanna sip a little wine with you

Oh oh ohYeah boy

I wanna take a little ride with you

Yeah boy

I wanna spend a little time with you

Yeah boy

I wanna sip a little wine with you

Oh oh ohYeah boy

I'm digging what you're doing

Yeah boy

I'm trying to keep it cool

But you're making it hard

I'm wishing your arms

Were wrapping me up tightYeah boy

You shine and you can't even help it

Yeah boy

Your eyes could make the moon jealous

And if you wanna know

If I wanna be your girl tonightYeah

Yeah boy

Yeah boy Yeah boy

I wanna take a little ride with you

Yeah boy

I wanna spend a little time with you

Yeah boy

I wanna sip a little wine with you

Oh oh oh

Yeah boy

I wanna take a little ride with you

Yeah boy

I wanna spend a little time with you

Yeah boy

I wanna sip a little wine with you

Oh oh oh

Yeah boy
